- Anime Marathon
 - o Next Sunday, EIT 1015.

Facebook

- Facebook contests? Condition being, you post/like a post on the Facebook wall.
 - o This will be organized.

EMC

- We need the agreement to be looked at by a Lawyer, or some legal personnel.
- Asher will look into the legal stuff.
- So, we'll run the agreement by a legal person, and then come to Ron with an ultimatum basically saying "sign this, or there will be no further negotiations."

Ban Reversal, Continued

- Our conditions were not met, so for the time being, we will not be reversing the ban.
- For more info, see the Meeting Minutes from July 04/2011.

Etcetera

- Free slurpies at 7-11.
- Con Bravo
 - o We still have a table, and still don't have much news other than that. The brochures were printed, but Dylan has yet to receive them.
- Resource Management Group
 - o Their approximate prices are "dollar store prices".
 - o Amy will go to Dollarama and find out how much a bag of paper plates costs.
- The Button Maker
 - o Has not yet been ordered yet.
- Swimming, anyone?
 - o Should we have a CTRL-A Swimming gathering at a public pool? If there aren't a lot of people, Amy knows of a pool we can get in for free. She has to check however.
 - o Since it's hot outside, it might be a cool idea.
 - o A thread will be started on the forums.
