1) Cosplay Café

Was on last Wednesday. Too much competition. Despite competition, went well. At least 10 costumers. Without a physical price list, people probably assumed it was free or too uncomfortable to ask. For the future, we need more advertising. We only advertised the day before on facebook.

2) OSHHC Marathon Review

Roughly correct amount of people as predicted. Pizza Heaven was way too unprofessional. Bluray player skipped a couple of times, probably a problem with the player and not the disks. May need to clean lens. Josh will try to remember to bring his lens cleaner. We want to encourage more marathons.

3) FedS Volunteer Extravaganza

We have three more spots open. Depart 1:30~5:00. Return 6:00~9:00. So far Amy, Josh and Jordy are going.

4) Karaoke & Hot Pot/Picnic

Karaoke is August 2nd, Hot Pot/Picnic is August 3rd. We are going to have hot pot. Probably at Karl's house.

We need someone to run karaoke. Josh will tentatively run it.

5) ConBravo!

This weekend. Josh will be there as staff. PGLS will be there. Jordy will be there volunteering. Might promote CTRL-A with PGLS.

6) APMM&AP(P)*MM

Can't do due to not being able to print them

7) Adjourn
